

Parade Home Tour 'People's Choice Award' goes to Homes by Donahoo

Homes by Donahoo took home the People's Choice Award from the 2013 Hill Country Builders Association (HCBA) Parade Home Tour. Owners Jerry and Barbara Donahoo are seasoned builders and Parade Home Tour participants with literally dozens of home building awards on their mantel.

"This award means so much, as the homeowners that tour the event annually have an opportunity to select their favorite home," said Barbara Donahoo. "We use their feedback to add components and design features to all of our homes, which makes this award very important to us."

The waterfront Donahoo Parade Home is located in the Kingsland golf course community Legends on Lake LBJ, and brought the very popular "Hill Country Modern" design to the forefront. It features undulating glass walls across the backside of the house providing an unobstructed view of Lake LBJ and the beautiful outdoor entertainment area, including pool, spa and fire bowl.

The Donahoo home building team also received the Best Master Suite award this year from the professional judging award program announced at the beginning of the event.

throughout the Hill Country and attracted over 1000 visitors over the 2-weekend, six-day event. The 2013 Tour was sponsored by Security State Bank and Trust.

Another local winner was also selected from the People's Choice award program during the Tour.

Parade ticket holder Cathy Hefington of Marble Falls, won the $5,000 California Closet giveaway by choosing to cast her vote in the People's Choice award program.

The 2014 Tour will be held on the two consecutive weekends of Oct. 17-19 and Oct. 24-26.
